SVALBARD

Svalbard is the crown of Arctic Norway. Located halfway between mainland Norway and the North Pole, one might expect it to be unbearably cold. — However, thanks to the Gulf Stream, all the islands in the Svalbard archipelago boast a surprisingly mild climate with distinctive seasons. The large variety of plants and wildlife includes seals, thousands of seabirds, Arctic fox, Arctic reindeer, and the top predator: the polar bear.

Located on the southern fringe of the frozen Arctic Ocean, Spitsbergen offers expedition landings, hikes, kayaking, and other activities in the largest Arctic wilderness in Europe.

Svalbard has more than 3,000 polar bears and fewer than 3,000 people. Remote, mysterious, and extreme, Svalbard is the crown of Arctic Norway; a land forged by ice, wind, ocean, and snow that presents us with a spectacular range of unforgettable adventures. With its location right on the edges of the ever frozen Arctic Ocean, the warmer currents of the Gulf Stream meet the cold air and water from the north. This Archipelago holds fascinating histories of the polar heroes of the north, cultural heritage from the coal mining era, and the history of exploration, hunting, and whaling. Wildlife is rich, both at sea and on land: whales, seals, reindeer, polar fox, and a rich variety of birds, all call this region home. And of course the king of the Arctic—the polar bear.

You can leave your watch in your cabin—north of the Arctic Circle, the day has no beginning or end. The Midnight Sun brings out magical colors in the surrounding landscape, and the soft rays of the low-hanging sun bathe it all in a wonderful palette of pink, purple, yellow, and orange and create unforgettable memories.

CLIMATE Despite its northerly location (74° to 81° north), Svalbard has a relatively mild climate. Due to the Gulf Stream, Svalbard's west coast is the world's northernmost ice-free area. The average summer temperature is 43°F and the coldest winter month of March has an average temperature of minus 57°F. There is little rain, but the moist air from the sea can cause a light drizzle and fog during the summer.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS At “Nordpolet” visitors can buy a certain amount of tax-free alcoholic drinks. Tourists have to show their airline ticket when shopping and are allowed to buy in total:

- 2 bottles containing more than 21% alcohol
 - 1 bottle of wine containing 14-21% alcohol
 - 6 cans/bottles of beer
 - Wine (up to 14%) can be bought without producing an airline ticket.
- Each person is only allowed to 2 liters, for example:
- 1 liter of alcohol (more than 21%) and 1 liter wine (14 to 21%)
 - or
 - 2 liters of wine (14 to 21%)
 - or
 - 2 liters of wine (less than 14%)
- It is possible to buy more but you will have to pay tax on it. Visitors can purchase goods for 6,000 NOK without paying taxes.

several nationalities have explored, hunted, and managed industries in this Arctic Archipelago. The Svalbard treaty dated 1920, signed by 43 member countries, gives Norway sovereignty over Svalbard.

MEDICAL EMERGENCIES AND MEDICATION

There is no doctor on board MS Nordstjernen. In serious emergencies the hospital in Longyearbyen will be contacted.

Remember to bring sufficient medication to last through any unforeseen delays. We also recommend that you keep your medication in your carry-on luggage properly labeled and with clear instructions for its use. Illness on board can lead to quarantine and orders from the ship's captain have to be followed. Travel protection is strongly recommended.

In case of a medical emergency outside Longyearbyen, the only means of evacuation is by helicopter to Longyearbyen Hospital. If any condition cannot be treated here, the patient will be sent to the Norwegian mainland. This is very expensive and dependent on favorable weather conditions, therefore comprehensive travel/health insurance that also covers medical evacuation is essential.

MOBILE PHONE Mobile phones can be used in Longyearbyen and Barentsburg only. There is no mobile coverage during the voyage at sea, but we are able to contact MS Nordstjernen via satellite telephones. If your family needs to get in touch with you in an emergency, please provide them with the telephone numbers for Hurtigruten Svalbard at +47 79 02 61 00, Funken Lodge at +47 79 02 62 00, or Radisson Blu Polar Hotel at +47 79023450. Via these numbers they can deliver urgent messages that will be forwarded to you.

NATURE AND WILDLIFE In order to preserve nature and wildlife on Svalbard, 65% of the Archipelago is protected through national parks, nature reserves, and bird sanctuaries. There are only three land mammals on Svalbard: polar bear, Svalbard reindeer, and the Arctic fox. In the sea, there are walrus, ringed seals, bearded seals, Greenland seals, hooded seals, white-nose dolphins, narwhales, white whales, killer whales, and more. There is a rich bird life on the island and more than 100 species have been registered. The flora is also very diverse for this far north.

POLAR BEARS AND SAFETY The polar bear is probably the foremost symbol of Svalbard's wildlife and it is an exhilarating experience to watch them in their natural habitat. Polar bears do not usually attack humans, but can be lethal. On all of our voyages and activities, safety is maintained by experienced guides carrying weapons, and giving warning shots if necessary. The authorities on Svalbard, together with the travel industry, make recommendations to travelers taking part in organized activities in order to protect both visitors and the polar bear population. If you are going outside Longyearbyen on your own, it is recommended that you take a weapon because of the polar bear danger. On organized trips, the guide will always be responsible for safety and will carry a weapon and equipment.

POPULATION AND SETTLEMENTS

The population of Svalbard is approximately 2,500. Longyearbyen is the largest settlement in the islands and also the seat of the governor. The town has a hospital, primary and secondary schools, university, sports center with a swimming pool, library, cultural center, cinema, bus system, hotels, a bank, and several museums. The newspaper Svalbardposten is published weekly. Spitsbergen is among the safest places on Earth, with virtually no crime. Barentsburg is the second largest settlement in Svalbard with about 500 inhabitants, almost entirely Russian and Ukrainian. The Russian-owned Arktikugol has been mining coal here since 1932, and during the Cold War Barentsburg was a hotbed of activity. Ny-Ålesund is one of the world's northernmost settlements, inhabited by a permanent population of approximately 30-35 people who work for one of the research stations or the logistics and supply company Kings Bay AS, which runs the research village. In the summer, the activity in Ny-Ålesund is greatly increased with up to 120 researchers, technicians, and field assistants.

SEASONS From April 19 through August 23, the people of Longyearbyen enjoy the Midnight Sun. From October 26 through February 16, the region is dark, and from November 14 through January 29, the polar nights take over; it is still dark but the sun is lower than 6° below the horizon.

SHOES On Svalbard it is a tradition to take off your shoes when entering private houses, hotels, and certain shops and public offices. Aboard the ship you may wear any type of footwear. Shoes with good soles are recommended for use outdoors on deck and for excursions ashore. On board the ship, as well as in the hotel, we advise you to bring a pair of shoes to use indoors. It is important that the shoes have a good grip (no slippery sole).

SHOPPING/PAYMENT Svalbard is a tax-free area which means that many commodities are cheaper here than on the Norwegian mainland. Longyearbyen has a variety of shops selling everything from perfumes to outdoor and sports equipment, gifts, and souvenirs. Norwegian Kroner (NOK) is used all over Svalbard, and in the Russian settlement of Barentsburg. Credit cards are accepted in Longyearbyen as well as on board MS Nordstjernen (Visa, Diners, and MasterCard). Please note credit card payments will all be processed in NOK on MS Nordstjernen. There is also an ATM in the center of Longyearbyen. In Barentsburg credit cards are accepted as well as NOK, USD, and Euro. In Ny-Ålesund credit cards and NOK are both accepted. However, we do recommend our guests to bring cash in NOK for use ashore.

TOURISM ON SVALBARD Svalbard's nature is very vulnerable, especially due to the permafrost. All vegetation is protected and all traces of human activity up until 1945 is regarded as part of the cultural heritage. Please see page 9 for more details about environmental commitment.

ENVIRONMENTAL COMMITMENT

Hurtigruten Svalbard and MS Nordstjernen's skilled crew offer life-affirming experiences close to nature's most spectacular landscapes, genuine cultures, exceptional people, and amazing wildlife. Preserving these resources in their natural, unspoiled condition is our priority—you will always experience the highest environmental awareness on board and ashore.

Arctic Wildlife

Hurtigruten is a participant in the Norwegian Polar Institute's project to register marine mammals in the Arctic. Gathering this data improves insight of habitat use and seasonal migration patterns, and is also used in The Environmental Monitoring of Svalbard.

AECO Hurtigruten is a full member of the Association of Arctic Expedition Cruise Operators (www.aeco.no) which is an international organization ensuring that tourism in the Arctic is carried out with the utmost consideration for the vulnerable natural environment, local cultures and cultural remains, as well as the challenging environment at sea and on land. This organization provides Hurtigruten Svalbard as an operator, and you as a visitor, with guidelines we are committed to follow.

Thank you for helping us

LEAVE NO LASTING SIGNS OF YOUR VISIT This means that you must not leave any litter behind, including small items such as cigarette butts. Do not engrave on rocks or buildings and do not build cairns, rearrange stones, or in any other way leave visible signs of your visit. In addition, we also ask you to watch where you set foot in order to protect the flora and vegetation and avoid path-making. Avoid stepping on flowers or plant beds if at all possible.

DO NOT PICK FLOWERS In some parts of the Arctic, flora is protected by law; in others, it is not. But AECO regards all flora as protected and asks you to not pick flowers or other plants.

DO NOT TAKE ANYTHING WITH YOU We encourage you to leave the Arctic as it is. Cultural remains are protected. In addition we ask you to leave stones, bones, antlers, driftwood, and other items where they are.

DO NOT DISTURB ANIMALS AECO regards all fauna in the Arctic as protected and will avoid disturbing animals and birds as far as possible. If close to animals and nesting birds, avoid making loud noises and keep conversation low and calm. AECO controls maximum group sizes when making landings and excursions and also minimum distances to various wildlife. You will be instructed by your tour leader. Please help us preserve the wildlife by following the instructions.

LEAVE CULTURAL REMAINS ALONE Cultural remains are protected by law and a zone of 328 feet around the remains is also considered a protected zone. Watch where you are walking and standing. Walk around and not in between objects. Do not take anything with you and do not attempt to touch or rearrange objects.

TAKE THE POLAR BEAR DANGER SERIOUSLY Polar bears are potentially dangerous animals, but also vulnerable. It is of the utmost importance that you follow your guide's instructions. For important rules for behavior in polar bear areas, please click on the link below.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

DAILY PROGRAM Each day the Expedition Team distributes a daily program with a list of port calls, landings, lectures, meals, and activities on board. All these published plans are subject to change.

ITINERARY CHANGES Some of our itineraries visit areas without, or with very limited, infrastructure. This, combined with some of the most extreme conditions on Earth—wind, weather, ice—may change sea floor conditions, which may alter our exact itinerary.

NOTE We are also subject to written and unwritten laws like assisting vessels or people in need.

SAFETY Safety is always the priority and the ship's captain will decide the final itinerary during the voyage, making every expedition unique.

WEATHER CONDITIONS Weather conditions can make landings and tender cruises with small boats more difficult or sometimes impossible. Remember that unforeseen twists often turn out to be the highlight of a trip. We invite you to be open to the unexpected and remember—flexibility is important on our Explorer cruises.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

— Do I have to be in good health to participate in this journey? It is important you are in good health as the journey can be long and tiring. Please note that in remote areas there is no immediate access to modern medical facilities. An expedition cruise is not recommended if you have a life-threatening disease or illness that requires frequent medical care. To be able to participate in landings, you must be able to walk on uneven or slippery surfaces and to climb on and off the small boats used for landings.

— How much time do you spend on land? All landings depend on factors such as the weather, the distance between the landing sites, and the operational conditions. The Expedition Leader and the Captain will arrange the daily route to ensure the best possible experience.

— Are there any restrictions on activities on land? As environmental protection is a concern, there are regulations for the protection of wildlife, the environment, and the cultures we encounter, which must be followed. Your Expedition Leader will provide necessary information on how to behave on land.

— Will there be rough seas on the trip? It is not possible to predict exact weather conditions. The Captain will do everything he can to make the voyage as comfortable as possible. If you are prone to seasickness, we suggest you bring your preferred medication.

LANDING BY SMALL BOATS

LANDING BY SMALL BOATS

The crew will show you what to do and as long as you follow their instructions, after a few days it will become second nature.

Much of the success depends on correct handling and proper use of the motordriven small boats. These are ideal for landings as they can land in otherwise inaccessible places. They have a shallow draft and are extremely stable and sustainable. For each landing with small boats, special safety measures are taken.

PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION FOR THE FOLLOWING GUIDELINES

1 The boat drivers are responsible for the boats and their landings. You must always follow their instructions.

2 All travelers must always wear appropriate life jackets regardless of weather and sea conditions.

3 When disembarking, you should always accept help offered by the driver or the crew. The 'sailors' grip,' in which one holds each other's forearms, is the strongest and most secure grip.

4 Always keep both hands free when embarking and disembarking. Give hand luggage to the helper for him to place it on board for you. Keep your hands inside the boat at all times.

5 Please limit your personal equipment on board the small boats. Small backpacks and belt bags are ideal for transporting cameras, binoculars, and for rain protection. Backpacks can be purchased in the onboard shop.

6 Always wait for instructions from the driver before embarking or disembarking. Use waterproof bags to protect binoculars or cameras. You should also wear waterproof clothing to protect against spray. The small boats are equipped with fire extinguisher, chart plotter, extra fuel, communications, and first-aid kit.

MS NORDSTJERNEN - DECK PLAN

MS Nordstjernen is named after the North Star, Polar Star, or Stella Polaris, famous for helping ships to navigate north for centuries, even back to the age of the Vikings.

The ship was built for the Coastal Voyage fleet in 1956 and extensively modernized in 2000 and 2013/14 for exclusive Arctic sailings. She still retains the aura of an old Atlantic ship and comes equipped with a dining room and bar, café, panorama lounge, and library. Inside you'll find cozy inside and outside cabins, the majority of which have upper and lower berths.

All rooms and deck surfaces have old, beautiful wood, which creates an extraordinary atmosphere. MS Nordstjernen still has all of her original art on board.
